1) How would you introduce yourself? (State your aims, expectations from life, hobbies, likes and dislikes, any philosophy you believe in)

I am by nature curious, keen observer of human nature, I read a lot, I believe in equality regardless of gender, age, religious beliefs, or physical ability. I want to use my skills and education to expand my horizons and advocate for a sustainable planet, equality and inclusivity.

2) Why did you choose to do an IBDP?

My interest is more in application of knowledge in addition to understanding the concepts. I wish to go abroad for higher studies.

3) Have you any special achievements in the field of sports/ cultural activities/ community service etc?

4) Mention a person or an incident that has impacted your thoughts, actions and personality. Explain how you have been influenced.

My aunt is academically accomplished and highly talented person. It saddens me to see her talents go to waste after she got married in a traditional household, and becoming a housemaker. She could have used her talents and intellect for personal success and broader impact, and I want to make sure I use my privilege of a higher education to make the world a better place.

5) The fears and challenges that you need to overcome.

I am an introvert by nature but I have to overcome my fear and hesitation to connect and collaborate with people, and to cooperate on team projects.
