Questionnaire for the Applicant

1) How would you introduce yourself? (State your aims, expectations from life, hobbies, likes and dislikes, any philosophy you believe in)

I am an aspiring pilot and a student. My main goal in life is to be the best version of myself and leave a meaningful impact for the betterment of the society. Though my results are not out of the world, I am willing to learn and work endlessly till I don't have to introduce myself. I feel like I am a girl with very little time but way too many hobbies for a single lifetime. The one hobby that has stuck with me is art. I have been doing art ever since I could hold a pencil. I have painted canvases, done still life, sketches and I have even made pottery. Art is a huge part of my life and has influenced and evolved me in endless ways that cannot be written on paper. I am also very passionate about playing the piano, crocheting and music. I like exploring new places, discovering new music genres and I absolutely love documentaries and video essays. Like every other human being I too have dislikes. I despise dishonesty, lack of dedication and narcissist tendencies. I truly believe that I hold the power of my own destiny and I am the only person who can change it. I want to be known as a humble, approachable and a highly respected person. I want to help uplift other people to achieve their goals once I am satisfied and settled in my own life. I do not think of the short term impacts but instead I think about the long lasting ones that I make on people's lives.

2) Why did you choose to do an IBDP?

I am choosing IBDP as my board of education as I feel it will act as a catalyst in my growth journey. It will make me an all rounded and well developed person who has the caliber of presenting both soft and hard skills. It will provide me with assurance and motivation to achieve my goals. It will keep me on track and encourage me to improve my knowledge. One of the first and main reasons I chose this board was due to its practicality which is very sparse in the diverse land of India. This board will also provide me international exposure which I am in very much need of.

3) Have you any special achievements in the field of sports/ cultural activities/ community service etc?

I have performed in dances multiple times in my society for the Ganesh Festival.
I have had my paintings hung up in the Nehru Art Gallery.
I have participated in art fairs and debates in my school.

4) Mention a person or an incident that has impacted your thoughts, actions and personality. Explain how you have been influenced.

The one person that has heavily influenced my life is my father. I look up to him in countless ways. Like, his decision making skills, his humour and also his habits. What I admire about him the most is his hard work and dedication. A lot of times he reminds me of myself. He was no topper in his school and neither am I. But, despite not being considered the brightest star, he proved everyone wrong and cracked one of our country's toughest exams, the Chartered Accountant's entrance test. I am so proud of him and anytime I feel I cannot achieve something in life I think of him and the great example he has set for me. I strive to be as hard working and dedicated as he is. He has never made me feel bad about my failures but instead motivated me to do better. I also like his down to earth personality and the vast knowledge he shares with me. Everything from the roads of Mumbai to the stock market, he has taught me so much. He has given me a vision in life and set forth an example of how failures make you stronger.

5) The fears and challenges that you need to overcome.

I am most definitely not the perfect person. I am only fifteen and I have so much space to improve. One of my biggest fears is letting go of a person or cutting them off. I have entered such a stage in my life where everything is changing so rapidly. I closed the biggest chapter of my life by completing my primary education. I met so many people over the course of thirteen years. This is the time where we all part. I am scared to let go of them as I fear of throwing away good memories even though I know that the friendship brought me more harm than good. One of the biggest challenges I need to overcome is procrastination. I do get my work done on time but I always wait till the last moment. If I had done my work from the start I would have gotten a much better outcome. I strive to change that from now. One of the biggest challenges would also be navigating through this new chapter of my life where I am no longer a child but also not an adult. I no longer have the power to make childish excuses for my wrong doings but I am also not in complete control of my life. I am determined to overcome my fears and challenges and navigate through life and achieve my goals.
