Questionnaire for the Applicant

1) How would you introduce yourself? (State your aims, expectations from life, hobbies, likes and dislikes, any philosophy you believe in)

I am often found in my room, transforming every thought and emotion into poetry. Given the choice, if I were alone, I could spend hours day-dreaming and painting pictures in my mind as it gives me immense hope. I love anything to do with literature.

I hope that, going ahead in life, I do not forget the importance of discipline, respect and gratitude as they can make or break one's personality. From endless joy on contributing to multiple school events to prelim-induced anxiety, grade 10 was an emotional rollercoaster. It was instrumental to the inspiration I have today to go forward in life and make a difference in this world. I have learnt that being yourself is the biggest impact one can make. I am very interested in psychology. An open mind is like an open window to the world with different kinds of people in every corner.

The best of us are bound to make mistakes sometimes, I dislike the misunderstanding in today's beings that mistakes pull us down. The truth being, they are fundamental learning curves in every unique journey disguised as mishaps. Celebrating our flaws is what makes the world beautiful but not adjusting to someone else's, makes it cruel.

My name is Ryna, I am the former literary prefect of Euroschool, Thane, an international rhythmic gymnast, and I believe that one should speak the words that they stand up for.

2) Why did you choose to do an IBDP?

Coming from an ICSE background, marks were a game based on the skill of memorization.

On speaking to a senior who is in Sulochanadevi's IB grade 11, I was in awe on hearing the ways of a classroom of an IB affiliated school.

It seemed like a dream form of education to me. Something so focused on research, creativity, experimenting, questioning and problem solving was very appealing to me as it does more justice to when we say '21st century skills'. Going forward in my academic life with an IB school will hopefully satisfy my craving for bringing change to our world's underprivileged areas.

3) Have you any special achievements in the field of sports/ cultural activities/ community service etc?

I like to believe that more experience is equivalent to a better mindset and that is what I have been aiming for.

I am an international rhythmic gymnast and was honoured to represent India at the 1st JRC stars rhythmic gymnastics championship at Bangkok, Thailand in 2022. I have been doing gymnastics for 10 years and love it to the fullest.

Expressing myself in the form of poetry and speech is something near and dear to my heart. I was the literary prefect at Euroschool, Thane for the academic year 2023-2024. I spoke on the importance of education and women empowerment through Malala Yousafzai's speech at Euro Eloquence 2022 and was awarded with the best speaker position, thus, going to the national level and placing 5th all around. I spoke on the typical behaviour of human minds through a self-written speech at the Euro Eloquence 2023 and was first runner up. I brought Euroschool, Thane the second position in the Haiku poetry competition for 180 schools all over India. I represented my school in slam poetry and plot twist at cascades 27 and 28 respectively hosted by Jamnabai Narsee school.

I was the editor in chief of 'Euro Vanguard' - our very first school magazine. I was a journalist at the Government Law College Model United Nations 2023. A personal and very special achievement for me.

was getting to play 'Maria' in the Rendition of 'The Sound Of Music ' hosted by our school. I love working with children and was lucky to have a tattoo stall for all the little ones of our school at the Euro Bloom Fest . It was heart warming to see their smiles as they walked away with glittery , personalized tattoos. Finally , I hosted ' Shakespeare and his monologues ' at our school.

4) Mention a person or an incident that has impacted your thoughts, actions and personality. Explain how you have been influenced.

I have been blessed with such lovely people in my life , who truly outshine those that don't matter and have taught me how to keep my light shining in situations like this one. On the 22nd of July , 2023 , I was participating in the Government law college Model United Nations as a journalist . It was my first MUN. It was overwhelming being surrounded by college students in such an intense environment. The panic of it all really hit me around halfway through the session and I broke down into tears. I was pretty stressed about everything else going on at that time as well . It was around exam time and I was in a way struggling to get things done. My mother picked me up half day and I was extremely adamant on not wanting to go the next day. When around midnight , my teacher mentioned sending another girl in place of me , I immediately called my teacher up and told her I was going, come what may . This other girl was a seasoned MUNer and I would never want to be replaced, even if it were for something small . I never thought that I would show up the next day , let alone coming home with two praise - worthy articles. Ever since , a little panic never stopped me from reaching my full potential and it surprises me every time.

5) The fears and challenges that you need to overcome.

I am someone who doubts myself quite a bit . Stepping out of my comfort zone definitely proves to be a test of my confidence . I often end up comparing myself to other people , even though I know that there will always be someone better . Leaving the past behind and moving forward with a clear mind is never easy , but I know well enough that one day , it will be.

Starting this new chapter in my life is exciting as well as nerve racking and I hope to be the best version of myself as I take this baby step into adulthood.
