Questionnaire for the Applicant

1) How would you introduce yourself? (State your aims, expectations from life, hobbies, likes and dislikes, any philosophy you believe in)

Hello, my name is Vedant Nair. I studied at Euro School in Airoli and I will be turning 16 years old in May. My ultimate goal in life is to become the best footballer of my generation and represent my country on an international level. I hope that life will present me with challenges, but at the same time allow me to lead a simple life. My hobbies include playing football, singing, and reading. In terms of my life philosophy, I believe in being kind to others and maintaining a positive attitude.

2) Why did you choose to do an IBDP?

I am considering choosing the IBDP as it promotes critical thinking and inquiry-based learning. Additionally, it helps develop time management skills and provides a broad, global perspective. In today's generation, IBDP is becoming an increasingly popular program due to its unique teaching techniques, which can benefit students in the long run. Moreover, it can improve international prospects and broaden horizons. My Father is my inspiration as he talks about the importance of IB philosophy which will enhance my skills.

3) Have you any special achievements in the field of sports/ cultural activities/ community service etc?

I have won several medals in sports, particularly in football. To be specific, I have earned 4 Medals out of which one medal is of a Runner-up in national level championship In GOA. Apart from that, I have also won a bronze and a gold medal in National open Karate Championship. In cultural activities, I have been participating in Bhagavad Geeta chanting competitions from last 6 years and have won 3 trophies of which 2 trophies is of 2nd prize and 1 trophies is of consolation prize.

4) Mention a person or an incident that has impacted your thoughts, actions and personality. Explain how you have been influenced.

I have been influenced by many personalities, but none as much as Cristiano Ronaldo. He has taught me the value of positive thinking and practical, tactical decision-making. Ronaldo has also helped me to believe in myself and my teammates, and to understand that talent is nothing without hard work. After listening to him, I have become more confident, focused, and mentally and physically stronger.

5) The fears and challenges that you need to overcome.

After the Covid pandemic, I took a deep look at myself and my life. I realized that I was lacking in self-confidence and mental strength, which made it difficult for me to face the challenges that life throws at us. I understood that in order to lead a fulfilling life, I need to have a strong and resilient mindset. Through self-reflection, I have come to the conclusion that improving my mental and emotional well-being is crucial for my personal growth and success. I am now committed to working on myself, building my self-confidence, and cultivating a positive mindset that helps me face any challenge with ease and grace.
