Questionnaire for the Applicant

1) How would you introduce yourself? (State your aims, expectations from life, hobbies, likes and dislikes, any philosophy you believe in)

My name is Ishita Singh. I m from Mumbai,India but have lived in the U.S. as well. I would describe myself as inquisitive, keen and open to actively seeking new and unknown experiences.

I actively participate in cultural events and stay involved in the community, work towards its betterment. I was involved in my schools rotary club where the major tasks accomplished by us were selling the handmade cloth bags and giving the earning in charity, visiting the orphan and providing services. I enjoy playing sports and am open to most of them but basketball is on the top of my list. I have also combated in jr. NBA, city and state level tournaments. Another hobby of mine is learning new language like German and Spanish , I am also involved in debating and taking part in MUNs.

I am ambitious and believe life is unpredictable. Besides curiously waiting for new adventure and supprises , I want my life to be administered by my own principles than being influenced by others."Only dead fishes follow the stream" being unique should be considered a blessing.

Kobe Bryant, a renowned basketball player's ideal play a significant role in my life. I live by his quote " rest at the end not in the middle". The believe of discipline being a stronger mechanism than motivation has guided my life.

2) Why did you choose to do an IBDP?

I have always been a icse student where we are expected to accept and acknowledge the textbook prescribed upon which we are tested. In contrary to IBDP curriculum which emphasizes on creativity, originallity and critical thinking and fosters a holistic approach.What stirs me more is that I can choose science and visual arts along with a foreign language all together , none of the boards provide students with such diverse options. It is said to be a rigorous course which already gives me goosebumps as I get a chance to push my limit and challenge myself everyday to get better than yesterday .I would love to indulge and embrace different cultures and shape my perspective as I met new people with different ideas and ideals.

3) Have you any special achievements in the field of sports/ cultural activities/ community service etc?

Model UN

Thakkur college MUN - special mention

Ruia MUN - high commendation

5 gold medal

2 silver medal

1 bronze medal

4) Mention a person or an incident that has impacted your thoughts, actions and personality. Explain how you have been influenced.

Avicii is a renowned artists who's songs were of progressive house genre . He has definitely moulded my opinion and perspective over the years, by reaching to me by his songs. "Wake Me Up" by Avicii is a song in which he has beautiful potrayed the feeling of being lost and searching for one's true purpose in life. The lyrics convey a sense of longing for something more meaningful and the desire to break free from societal expectations.

The song reflects themes of self-discovery, determination, and the courage to follow one's own path, even in the face ofHe wants everybody to see through his eyes and to walk in his shoes. adversity. The lyrics express the universal human experience of striving for authenticity and a sense of belonging.This song is about an optimistic person who is not content with the hatred and discrimination of the world. She hates the way she is treated for being different in her current surrounding but soon finds like minded people after traveling across her villages to a place more modern and accepting.

Avicii mention " wake me up when it's all over" by which he means he hates all of the hatred, he wants to be free and he wants to love. He wants to live in a world with unbiased and artistic freedom.

I comprehend that everyone has different purpose in life and sometimes the people we are surrounded with might not except us.The point is that we barely met 0.001% of the population there a whole lot of people there whom u can connect with.Different people are in different situations and circumstances their actions should not be judged and segregated into right or wrong unless we see through their eyes and walk in their shoes.

This song has given me a positive perspective to life and has made me more resilient to failure.Theres always a hope inside me of something better on the way or to discover. At the same time I have reduced the unnecessary filters inorder to talk to people and learn about them.

5) The fears and challenges that you need to overcome.

I believe the biggest fear that is to be overcome is the fear of being judged.This single challenge prevent a person from doing many great things and avoids a person from taking risks .In order to overcome this I have challenged to force myself to do the things which scare me and always try to stay outside my comfort zone.
